DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On December 15, 2015, Ian Brooks ("petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that he suffered left-sided frozen shoulder which caused severe pain and limited range of motion as a result of an influenza ("flu") vaccine he received on December 9, 2013. On June 15, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on respondent's proffer. (ECF No. 23).

On September 15, 2016, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 28). Petitioner requests attorneys' fees in the amount of $12,782.30, and attorneys' costs in the amount of $655.42, for a total amount of $13,437.72. Id. at 1. In accordance with General Order #9, petitioner's counsel states that petitioner has not incurred any fees or costs related to the litigation of this case.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

On September 15, 2016, respondent filed a response to the motion for attorneys' fees and costs stating that respondent does not object to the overall amount sought, as it is not an unreasonable amount to have been incurred for the proceedings to date. Respondent states that her lack of objection should not be construed as an admission, concession or waiver as to the hourly rates requested, the number of hours billed, or the other litigation related costs.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. § 15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request and the lack of opposition from respondent, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's motion for attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total of $13,437.72³ as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and petitioner's counsel Edward M. Kraus.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁴
